Modern Slavery (Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking) Policy

Introduction from the Managing Director

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms such as slavery, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking. We all have a responsibility to be alert to the risks, in our business and in our supply chain. All employees are requested to report their concerns, and management will investigate and act immediately.

Our Business - CNS is a Limited Company

CNS has one site office based in Bow, London E3 3FW. We provide urgent same-day and next-day timed deliveries.

Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for CNS and all our business partners. Please note that currently this policy does not form part of any employee's contract, this may change at a future time.

This Policy will be distributed to all concerned and a signature will be required to provide evidence of receipt.

Supplier Adherence to our values and Ethics

CNS has a zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. We expect all our suppliers and business partners to comply with these values.

Due Diligence

As a small to medium size company we are fortunate to be able to build long standing business relationships with our clients and suppliers on a one to one basis. Where we can, we would always wish to deal with local businesses.

Responsibility for Policy

John Weston has overall responsibility for this policy, and to ensure compliance.

Acknowledged and signed by John Weston:
April 2020.
